

From: trasharp@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 4:36pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The government has no business determining software/hardware combinations how technology can be improved how technology companies can form partnerships and how companies can manage their intellectual property. The market and consumers have already made that decision and make it every day in their purchasing choices. This settlement should be approved so that we can all move on to the business of innovation.